

THE INVOLVEMENT OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN DOMESTIC TERRORISM
Editorial

Question: is there any domestic terrorist attack in which the federal government was not involved? The answer is that we don't know, because the Oklahoma bombing has yet to go to trial. But in all other terrorist attacks we find government involvement.

In the most recent example, the alleged bomb making by Georgia Militia members, the government involvement became clear in a Macon, Georgia courtroom last Monday. Several federal informants had participated in the plans to make pipe bombs, and the attorney to the defendant Robert Starr claimed that Starr was the only conspirator not working for the government. In fact, his attorney claims that bomb making parts were buried on his property by federal agents without his knowledge. Two days before his arrest, Starr appeared on a talk radio show saying that there was a government conspiracy against him and that he was going to expose it.

A BATF agent also admitted in court that Starr's co-defendant, William James "Jimmy" McCranie, had said, "I don't want to know anything about it" and walked away when the government informant was talking about building bombs.

Strangely, CBS news reported on the day of Starr's arrest that it had been a plot to bomb the Olympic Games in Atlanta this summer. Who told them that and why did they believe it? Who is CBS news working for? The uncritical attitude with which the mainstream media repeats everything the government tells it is distasteful.

As for previous terrorist attacks, we know that at the very least, World Trade Center bombers were trained by a federal agent, and we know that a government informant inspired the New York harbor tunnel attacks that were averted at the last moment.

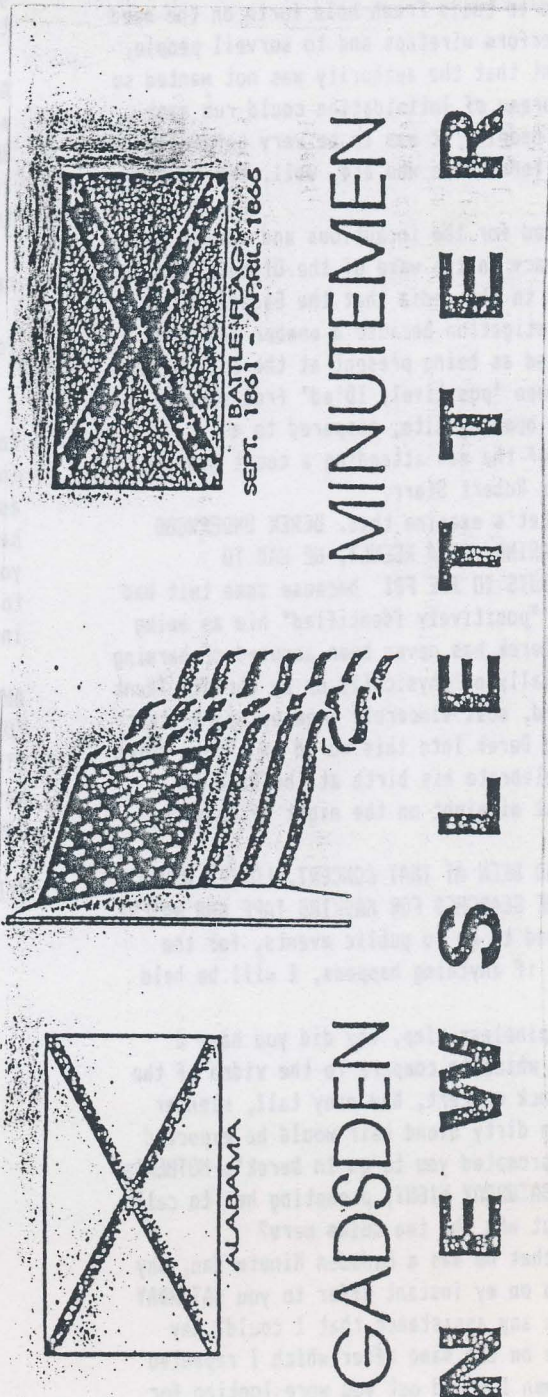

The residents of Oklahoma City were not that fortunate. Was it a government sting operation gone awry? The federal government shows surprising little interest in the John Doe #2 who was seen in the truck with McVeigh. Was he working for the federal government? If that were the case the government would be likely to cover up that fact rather than face the ensuing public outrage.

The question that presents itself, then, is whether any of these terrorist plots would have materialized without the involvement and assistance of the federal government? The new antiterrorism bill is designed to allow the Clinton administration to better control and monitor the American people. Perhaps what we need more is a bill to keep a better check on what the government is doing. We obviously cannot depend on the mainstream media for that.

KEMP'S FREEHOLD: FREEDOM

In considering the new antiterrorism legislation, the Senate listened to Louis Freeh hold forth on the need for authority to perform wiretaps and to surveil people. He was quite adamant that the authority was not wanted so that the Federal Bureau of Intimidation could run amok among the American people. It was to be very carefully used to combat the terrorists who are, well, terrorizing America.

He apologized for the incautious and unwise haste employed by his agency in the wake of the Olympic bombing. First it was leaked to the media that the Gadsden Minute Men were under investigation because a member had been positively identified as being present at the site of the explosion. He had been "positively ID'ed" from video surveillance at the bombing site, compared to a surveillance photo of the man attending a court hearing in Macon Georgia for Robert Starr.

DO WHAT?!? Let's examine this. DEREK UNDERWOOD ATTENDED A COURT HEARING; AS A RESULT, HE HAD TO EXPLAIN HIS WHEREABOUTS TO THE FBI because some twit had Derek's picture and "positively identified" him as being at a bombing site..Derek has never been accused of harming another soul, materially or physically or by threat. Thank God- thank You , Lord, most sincerely from my heart- that you saw fit to bring Derek into this world on a date which encouraged him to celebrate his birth at The Barn in Ashville, Alabama, at midnight on the night of July 26, 1996.

WHAT IF I HAD BEEN AT THAT CONCERT, LOUIE? WOULD I NOW BE HAVING MY HOME SEARCHED FOR MASKING TAPE AND NAILS? Am I not to be allowed to go to public events, for the additional fear that if anything happens, I will be held responsible?

Louie, you spineless pimp, why did you have a picture of my friend which to compare to the video of the bombing site? At a rock concert, how many tall, slender white males with long dirty blond hair would be expected to be present? What prompted you to go to Derek's MOTHER's home at ten o'clock SATURDAY NIGHT, prompting her to call the police to find out who the two suits were?

If you knew that he was a Gadsden Minute Man, why didn't you take me up on my instant offer to you SATURDAY MORNING to render you any assistance that I could? Why didn't you take me up on the same offer which I repeated on SUNDAY MORNING, when I found out you were looking for him, and I told you that he was a hundred and some miles away in the presence of witnesses in a public place when the bomb went off?

Derek doesn't have a listed phone. Does that make him a criminal? He called you Sunday morning, and you were rude and threatening to him. I had counseled him to seek a meeting in a public place, a Shoney's restaurant, to wit, and you refused. Is this how you treat an American doing his level best to HELP you? Later that day we met your boys in a restaurant- to wit, a Shoney's- at the suggestion of YOUR special agents, who wanted to move the venue (for fear of what- the media? Or big, bad militia men lying in ambush? Get real, you drooling fool. You KNOW that we are going to involve the media- and you can't avoid it- it is the only protection, short of firearms, that we have.).

How had they come to behave (semi)politely? An American who knew his rights, and who knew your lawless methods, AND WHO ISN'T AFRAID OF YOU- IN FACT FINDS YOU BENEATH CONTEMPT- boxed your agent's ears, and recorded the conversations, then ran to the press. Why do we have to behave this way?

Because, Louie, you are our hired help and fail to recognize your place.

Why was Mr. Jewell's name released and all public focus pointed to him, when you STILL have not arrested him?

After Waco and Ruby Ridge; after COINTELPRO; after J Edgar and MLK- after having your local SAC write letters to the editors and assure everyone that you only investigate on reasonable suspicion or probable cause- assuring everyone that you are not $Secret Police$- you have the gall to stand before the Senate and promise that you don't want to bother anybody (any more), you just want to have authority to chase terrorists. You won't bother innocent Americans- ANY MORE.

WE KNOW HOW YOU DON'T BOTHER PEOPLE, LOUIE- AND WE DEMAND THAT YOU STOP. START LOOKING OUT FOR THE CONSTITUTION- aren't you sworn to uphold it?- AND STOP LOOKING OUT FOR FREEDOM. How many pictures do you have of me? I hope they are better ones than the one you used to $positively ID Derek Underwood.$

Subj: Interesting ATF letter

The following is a letter written by a retired ATF agent to NATA (National Association of Treasury Agents), who publishes "The Agent." Very interesting reading. Please distribute.

Dear NATA,

I have never written a letter to the editor of any magazine before, but a recent "Soldier of Fortune" article and a letter in the March 1996 "Agent" have really raised my ire.

First, I think Deputy Director Jorgensen's interview with "soldier of Fortune" was tantamount to collusion with the enemy. I believe "Soldier of Fortune" and people like retired ATF Associate Director Robert Sanders are adding fuel to the ultra-right wing lunatic fringe. When we (law enforcement) break ranks, or go over to the other side, we have defeated ourselves. I don't have the answer to the current dilemma in ATF, but I do know it doesn't lie with Soldier of Fortune.

On a kinder note, I did appreciate Jorgensen's comments in the "Federal Times" regarding the "Good Ole Boys" witch hunt. We need to take strong immediate action against ATF and Treasury to put a stop to their "kangaroo court" tactics. We have heard that two agents were relieved of their duties in the investigation of arson fires in the Southeast. They were relieved solely because of their attendance at the "Good Ole Boys" reunion, another positive contribution to the morale of ATF by our management.

Second, and this addressed to the "ATF Headquarters Agent" who wrote a letter highly critical of NATA last quarter....shame on you for throwing rocks at NATA. You and everyone in headquarters share the responsibility for the departure of "Billy's vision." You remain in the cloistered halls of 650 Mass Ave., NW, quietly chuckling about the latest "stupid" move by the Director and paying homage to him hoping you'll get that sacred promotion and transfer.

Some of us have seen that the Emperor doesn't have any clothes and that he is depleting the royal treasury. If you are so disappointed about the direction NATA's taking, then I suggest you and the rest of the mice in headquarters change it. Tell NATA what is happening at headquarters. Let some sunshine into the dungeon. Last of all, have the courage to take a stand against the "Beltway" mentality that exists in the palace.

Remember one thing as I close....every time you point a finger of blame at someone else....there are three pointing back at you.

Recently Paroled ATF HQ Agent

<end of agent's letter>

<and NATA replied>

Thanks for your thoughtful letter. We assume you're critical of an article entitled "ATF's Constitutional Conscience" which appeared in the April '96 issue of "Soldier of Fortune." We've gotten a half dozen or so very positive telephone calls about the article, while yours is the only negative letter received so far.....
(reply continues).....

Of greatest concern in this correspondent's letter to NATA, however, are phrases such as "....breaks ranks...." and "...go over to the other side..."

We are not adherents to the traditional law enforcement "codes of silence" or "code of blue." Those who are....can never be true "professional" since one crucial trait of a true professional is a willingness to engage in honest public self-criticism rather than cover-ups, lies, deceit, and scape goating.

As real "professionals" we sincerely believe in the spirit and letter of public service and trust. We do not believe it's US, the cops, circling the wagons against THEM, the citizenry. We believe THEY have an absolute right to know AND to be critical of us, when warranted. WE are NOT an elite "class." THEY pay US to serve THEM

Finally, please consider these two questions: Is there any doubt that criticism in many recent instances has been warranted, AND what does it mean to be a "civil servant" in the finest tradition?

Answer those questions honestly, and you must admit many managers, and yes....even some "street agents," have strayed from the path.

<end of NATA transcript>

Chalk one up for the National Association of Treasury Agents, if we had more Treasury and other federal agents who believed this way, there would be no concern over whether honest citizens and law enforcement personnel were being trampled on.

KEMP'S FREEHOLD:

JUST UNDO IT

7/7/96

Today we are in the aftermath of what has come to be known as the ~~Conservative Revolution~~. Conservative actions speak loudly. We have gotten a lot more federal law enforcement, both in funding and in personnel at all levels, fed to local. At the same time Congress has attempted to expand federal jurisdiction through various telecommunications bills, ~~crime~~ bills, arson against churches bill, ~~anti-terrorist~~ bill, and Republican (which purports to congeal the modern essence of Conservatism) minorities cooperated with passage of NAFTA and GATT, and the Brady and ~~assault~~ weapon bills. Social Security grows and medicare expands.

I could spend all night doing this. Congress ignores the transfer of sovereignty to the United Nations and ~~allied~~ control of our military abroad (how about at home?) and of sovereign US soil.

Conservative thought advocates a balanced budget amendment, a prayer in school amendment, a term limit amendment, a flag burning amendment; have I missed anything? What are Conservatives trying to conserve? Or, is ~~Conservative~~ just another catchy name?

When you have gold and silver money, Constitutional money, it is difficult to get in such long term deep debt as we are in. Get your money Constitutional, ~~balance~~ will be evidenced. Elect Constitutionally wise candidates, and demand Constitutional performance and term limits will be moot. They will serve a tour or two, doing their duty, then abandon government for their own more profitable pursuits.

There is no Constitutional allowance for federal intervention in schools, which by their definition are local... for now. Pass an Amendment and then see. Can't a child pray in school, now? Don't try to tell me that a child can't take a few seconds almost any time for silent appellation to the Lord. What kind of Amendment would you pass?

How are you going to prosecute people when one man ties a bandanna made in the image of Old Glory, and is proudly displaying her. The next man ties the same bandanna, intent on showing his disrespect by using her for a sweat rag.

Conservatives (and Liberals, too- just look at their end goals- they all think government can provide something beyond its Constitutional charter) wish to expand the sphere of government. They are encouraging the expansion in different ways, but always by deception.

There was not need of a Fourteenth Amendment, applying federal power to the states. Rights guaranteed under the Bill of Rights are INDIVIDUAL rights. The states are obligated to the Constitution to guarantee the rights of the people. They must answer to a Constitutional court for their failures. Otherwise is legal sophistry, manipulation of the first order. So likewise with our above examples. The object is to divert attention from the real issues.

This is not conservative, which is a word (remember when the purpose of language was to illuminate, not obfuscate?) which stems from a root which means to conserve, to preserve, to restore, to protect. What are Conservatives trying to conserve?

Liberals would expand government in order to ~~provide~~ rights. Conservatives would expand government by deceptively altering the fundamental document under the guise of ~~restoration~~ and ~~protection~~, when the exact truth is that those Constitutional protections the changes are alleged to ~~protect~~ are the ones being killed and buried by the changes.

If someone is going to legislate conservatively in this day and age, then laws are to be repealed. Across the spectrum, those things which expand government's role beyond the strict Constitution are to be repealed. Give meaning to the phrases ~~era of big government is over~~ and ~~get government off our backs~~ and ~~end welfare as we know it~~.

Politician, don't tell me what you are going to Washington (or City Hall) to do. Tell me about what you are going to UNDO.

A late update; Bob Dole shall not attempt to repeal Brady or the ~~assault~~ weapon ban. He says that the discussion has ~~moved beyond~~ those issued. He wants an instant check for firearm purchases, nationwide. You know, prove your innocence and update their database at the same time. Go ahead- keep asking permission. See how long it is before you are denied.

OH, YEAH! VOTE CONSERVATIVE!

July 27, 1996

The bombing of Centennial Park in Atlanta, is, as President Clinton stated, "a cowardice act of terror."

Not only did this act kill and injure innocent people, it also taints the upcoming trial of Bob Starr and Jimmy McCranie. As I posted previously; CBS, on April 26th of this year, purposely tied the Macon Militia bust to a threat on the Olympics. Shortly after this accusation was made, an FBI spokesman in Washington, DC, said there was no connection between the militia arrest and the Olympics, this press conference also came on April 26th.. CBS has refused to back away from their false accusations, due to a Treasury spokesman leaking this dis-information to CBS.

CBS also mentioned the Macon arrests today, in yet another attempt to tie this arrest with the bombing in Atlanta.

We offer our assistance, and full cooperation, to the authorities investigating the bombing in Atlanta.

My Story by MARY ANNE POOLLES

I forget to tell you the part of my story that involved the BATF in Kansas City.

In April, prior to my termination at the IRS, I went to World of Fun at 3AM to pick my daughter up at work. She had called me on the phone to pick her up. Remember: My phone lines were being listened to and monitored illegally. When I got to Hwy 435 and the Worlds of Fun exit I pulled off and stoped at the stop light. Next to me pulled up a red ford pick up. The man driving the pick up looked like Steve Larm, the investigator with the IRS that had interrrogated me on March 21 and was trying to find something on me to fire me. When the light turned green I took off and so did the pick up. I sped up and so did the pick up. Finally, I was beginning to get a little scared and something told me to slam on my brakes and I did. At that same time the red pick up swerved over to my lane to try and run me off the road. I was very, very, very scared. I came to a complete stop and waited for the truck to go out of sight since I was just a short ways to the entrance of Worlds of Fun. At the time the only thing that I got was : It was a new red Ford Pick up, license plate began YY5, and there were the words miller or milner over the left side of the rear bumper. I also remember the shinning rear bumper reflecting my headlights. The one thing that I had neglected was that just one day prior to this run-in I had been to Senator Danforths Office requesting his assistance. There was another slight run in during the time frame of June but I just brushed it off as a very busy traffic session. Again I got the first three letter of the license plate: YY5, Missouri plate. Then in February, 1990 I went again to Senator Danforths office since I was living in Missouri, requesting his assistance. The following evening I left where I was living to go get a sandwich. This was not a planned action. I got my sandwich and pulled on hwy 470 heading west for home. I looked when I pulled on the Hwy and there was not traffic and none behind me. It was dark, lights can be seen at a distance. I lifted my foot off the gas peddle to light a cigarette. Then I still smoked. At this moment a red pick up almost ran me off the road. I sped up to get the trucks license plate number. I was in shock. It was a red pick up Missouri license plate: YY5-146. There were two people in the truck. It was almost 7pm and I followed the truck as long as I felt it was safe. I realized that I was being stupid and I pulled off at the Holmes exit, went to the nearest phone and called a friend of mine whom I gave the License plate number to. She called a friend in the Military who ran the plate. When they received the VIN number it came up restricted.. It showed Explosive Company on the VIN restriction. The man in the Militarys boss called him into his office. He told him to tell whoever was involved with this truck to stay away. The only one with the power to restrict a vin is the Government. I became scared and I moved out of Kansas City.

The next day I went to the spot where they tried to run me off the road and again I became scared. If they had been successful, no one would have been able to see me from the road after I was run off. If I was injured and unable to get out of the truck I would have died. I am an Insulin Dependent Diabetic.

I had the sheriff in Pennsy. run this plate for me and he got the same thing.

A couple of months later the vin restriction was removed. It was Maynes Explosive Company. This is the Company that produced the explosives that killed all the fireman in Kansas City.

My best friend lost two relative in this explosive. She gave this information to the brother of one of the men that was killed in the explosion. He found the truck and took a picture of the truck. He requested that I go to BATF and tell them my story. So my best friend Maggie Siegmund, My Mother, and myself went to the BATF Office in Kansas City. We were made to wait and the man that finally took us to his office was very rude. I told him I was not here out of choice but because the family of the fireman had asked me to report to him what had happened and who I thought was driving the truck. It turned out that the BATF Agent was a friend of Steve Larms. He became very hostile and told me that he was not going to help me win my case against the IRS. I never mentioned my case to him. I had already won the initial hearing and I told him I just wanted to make sure that it was safe for me to return to Kansas City. He told me not to return to his office. I belive this mans actions is what started the use of the word "RUDE". This man from the BATF later spoke with the bother of the fireman that was killed. He told the brother that I had made up the license plate number and went out and found a truck to fit it. The brother is the man that found the truck and took the picture. He knew from this BATF's remarks that there was a government coverup going on concerning this explosion or something was not right.

"Today Americans would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order; tomorrow they will be grateful! This is especially true if they were told there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all peoples of the world will pledge with world leaders to deliver them from this evil. The one thing every man fears is the unknown. When presented with this scenarios, individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well being granted to them by their world government."

SAY GOODBYE TO THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The air had hardly cleared from the bombing at Centennial Park in Atlanta when the major networks were quoting an unnamed FBI source as blaming "some nut case, or militia" as the probable responsible party. This is similar to their behavior following the Oklahoma City bombing and has even been mentioned following TWA Flight 800. Is it likely or even probable that the militia could have been involved in any of these incidents?

Although it is certainly possible, in that no one has yet been convicted for any of these crimes, this writer has seen no evidence that would even implicate someone from the political right. In fact, history tells us it is much more likely that bombings are a tool of the political left.

What are the characteristics of militia that diminish the probability of their participation in violent activities? First and foremost, most militia believe strongly in our Constitution. It is the Second Amendment that gives citizens the right to keep and bear arms. A strong belief in our Constitution also means a belief in the other parts, as well.

One can not pick and choose those elements of our Constitution that we wish to follow and those we wish to ignore. The only way one element of our Constitution has any value is if the entire document has value. It is all or nothing. Either the entire Constitution applies or none of it applies. A prime goal of most legitimate militia is the restoration of the entire Constitution.

The idea that one could violate the Constitution in order to restore the Constitution is ridiculous. Those who blame the militia for these logically nonsensical views know little or nothing about the militia.

Most militia are also deeply religious and incorporate Christianity as their guiding ideology. Religious pursuits have certainly been the cause of more deaths than practically any other. Terrorism itself is essentially a way of life for religious factions in Northern Ireland, the Middle East, and a myriad of other places.

But terrorism is counter to the teachings of Christianity, which fosters "turn the other cheek" and "walk the second mile" as personal philosophies. A Christian can not be true to his or her religion and simultaneously promote violence. To believe in both is a contradiction.

Bombings, however, are a proven favorite tool of terror for the extreme left in most societies around the world where such threats exist. In the U.S. in the 1960's, the Students for a Democratic Society, through their radical faction, the Weathermen, used bombings as a means to effect radical political change. Calling themselves the New Left, SDS participants strongly opposed the Viet Nam War and advocated the use of LSD, marijuana, hashish, and mescaline as social catalysts. Other occult pursuits, including mysticism and witchcraft, were frequently followed by those in the movement.

More recently, the accused Unabomber suspect, Theodore Kaczinski, has been clearly identified as being from the extreme political left. The writings of the Unabomber, who is yet to be proven to be Kaczinski, advocate an end to America's rampant consumerism and to our technology-based economy. If America were to adopt these changes, it would certainly represent radical change of the status quo, which virtually defines the political left.

In contrast, there is no known case anywhere in the United States of a militia member being involved in an act of violence. Even in our nation's most tragic bombing case to date, the Oklahoma City bombing, suspects Timothy McVeigh and Terry Nichols have no known connection with militia, or any other group in the political right, anywhere.

Could this attempt by the media, 92% of whom are shown by surveys to align themselves with the political left, and some in Congress and the Administration, some of whom were youths in the '60s, to focus on our nation's right hand be just a smoke screen to deflect our attention from asking what our left hand is doing? The data from occurrences in our nation's past strongly suggest this just might be the case.

Your Bill of Rights is about to be trashed by the United States Congress as the liberal extremists there seek new and creative ways to make government stronger under the colors of combating terrorism. House Speaker Newt Gingrich stated on national television following the Atlanta bombing that President Clinton could not ask for terrorist legislation strong enough that it would not be supported by the U.S. House. The sad part is that not one act of terrorism will likely be averted by virtue of the sacrifice, because conceivably the wrong people will be blamed.

End

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years." He went on to explain: "It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supernational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries."

--David Rockefeller speaking at the June 1991 Bilderberger meeting in Baden Baden, Germany (a meeting also attended by then Governor Bill Clinton and Dan Quayle).

JONESBORO, Ga. (Jul 31, 1996 4:41 p.m. EDT) -- An 18-year-old self-styled anarchist who allegedly wrote and distributed a homemade, anti-government pamphlet has been charged with advocating the overthrow of the U.S. government.

Jason Paul Moreland from suburban Atlanta remained in Clayton County's jail Wednesday in lieu of $50,000 bond.

Moreland turned himself in Sunday. Authorities obtained a warrant for his arrest Saturday after the pipe bombing at Centennial Olympic Park, although police say they don't think he played any role in the crime. Moreland had been under investigation since July 8.

"He told us he was only interested in destroying property, and I don't think he fully understands the ramifications," Police Lt. Larry Gibson said. "Whatever he was up to, we wanted to nip it in the bud." Others allegedly made copies of the pamphlet and distributed it, but police expect to make no further arrests, police spokesman Doug Jewett said Wednesday.

The pamphlet was laced with anti-police cartoons, obscenities and anarchist slogans. The one overt reference to violence was an illustration of a Molotov cocktail.

The charge carries a sentence of one to 20 years in prison and up to a $20,000 fine, Jewett said.

In Liberty,

Supposedly this has been confirmed by CBS news. We also have a report that Troy Spain received a certified letter from the US Attorney, legally notifying him that taped evidence from Paul Sullivan will be used against him. Paul Sullivan is a long time member of Bob Starr's militia group. This coincides with a previous statement I made that the government would have had to have some other informant in place, that was not being paid by the agency. The government knew that paid snitches would not look good to the jury without supporting testimony from a normal run-of-the-mill militiaman. Paul Sullivan has long been high on the list of suspects. Nancy Lord and myself discussed this a couple of months back. If this report by Spain is accurate, then it will definitely confirm my suspicions. I was tipped to this back in early May when I relayed a deliberate piece of dis-information to Sullivan, and received the same info back thru a law enforcement contact and friend of mine. The good news is that we have sworn tape recorded statements that will impeach any negative testimony that Paul may have been coerced into saying.

Stay tuned

"...the spirit of the times may alter, will alter. Our rulers will become corrupt, our people careless. A single zealot may commence persecutor, and better men be his victims. It can never be too often repeated, that the time for fixing every essential right on a legal basis is while our rulers are honest, and ourselves united. For the conclusion of this war [for Independence] we shall be going down hill. It will not then be necessary to resort every moment to the people for support. They will be forgotten, therefore, and their rights disregarded. They will forget themselves, but in the sole faculty of making money, and will never think of uniting to effect a due respect for their rights. The shackles, therefore, which shall not be knocked off at the conclusion of this war, will remain on us long, will be made heavier and heavier, till our rights shall revive or expire in a convulsion."

Ironically, present at the 67 "antiterrorism" murderous and completely unprovoked attack on the peaceful and law-abiding Branch Davidians at Waco,

We wonder if she'll be tried in the brand-new World

One good thing about these proposals though is that,

CANADIANS WILL "FEEL" ANTI-TERROR MEASURES

PARIS - Terrorism touches ordinary lives and governments determined to fight it may soon be interfering with them,

Foreign Affairs Minister Lloyd Axworthy says Canadians are

He said it may be that airfares will rise to cover the cost

But he said any intrusion into the life of ordinary Canadians has to be put in perspective.

Axworthy said.

Will you have international events anymore? Will people be wanting to travel the same way? Will you be having so much security around Parliament Hill that no one can get in to see question period? All sorts of things will change if we don't battle back."

Foreign and security ministers from the Group of Seven leading industrial nations, plus Russia, spent five hours debating measures to strengthen their common defence against the growing threat of terrorism.

They agreed to a 25-point program of principles for fighting terrorism, including the drafting of a new international convention on terrorist bombings.

The recent bomb at the Atlanta Olympics, the suspicious downing of TWA Flight 800 and a lengthy litany of terrorist attacks around the world in the past month hung over their meeting like a black cloud, adding a new sense of urgency to work that has been under way since last year's 6-7 summit in Halifax.

The measures adopted were primarily concrete police and intelligence proposals designed to cut off funds available to terrorists, restrict their movements and pre-empt their attacks by systematically sharing relevant information.

Ministers from Canada, the United States, France, Germany, Britain, Italy, Japan and Russia agreed to implement the measures "without delay" and use their membership in regional forums around the world to convince other nations to follow suit.

The 25-point program unveiled at the end of the Paris conference contained few items concrete enough to implement immediately.

The program includes general agreement on stricter border controls, a search for legal ways to track terrorists via the Internet and on investigations of charitable, humanitarian and other organizations that might be used as fronts for terrorism.

The ministers did not specify which groups these might be. Other elements include tighter international standards for bomb detection at airports and standardization of investigative tools that police can use to hunt down bombers.

In an interview from Paris yesterday, Revenue
Minister Jane Stewart told The Star's Shawn McCarthy the federal government is relying on informants in the immigrant community to investigate groups that may be raising money for terrorist groups.

Stewart said Ottawa is monitoring charitable groups that are raising money for relief overseas to ensure the money does not get funnelled to terrorist organizations.

"We register charitable organizations and we have the ability to deregister if we find they are not engaged in charitable activities," Stewart said.

"But it's very hard to make that evidentiary link. And it really is based on incredible intelligence."

French Foreign Minister Herve de Charette told reporters the ministers focused considerable attention on "new forms of terrorism" and the new technology it was exploiting. He described the new threat as coming from small, mobile, multinational groups with confused ideologies - groups who don't even claim responsibility for their actions.

Several ministers said Axworthy helped them understand the problem when he described how his 11-year-old son, sitting in Ottawa, showed him on the Internet how to access hate literature from white supremacists and other extremist groups.

Axworthy said later: "To have young people exposed to those kinds of messages without being able to provide some kind of alternative frightens me."

The ministers agreed to have their security experts report before Christmas on possible ways to block the use of technologies like the Internet to disseminate terrorist propaganda and information.

- o o o -

And who is a "terrorist"? Why, under the soon-to-be-reinforced Omnibus Counter-Terrorism Bill, anyone whom "Mr. Clean", President Bill - "the Bilderbergers gave me my job" - Clinton, decides to declare a "terrorist", that's who!

Maybe me, maybe you. But definitely not Janet Reno. And definitely not the ATF.

*That kind of "terrorism" is made necessary by the mere existence of the rest of us, all would-be potential "terrorists" to the last man and woman in the eyes of the NWO elite until our freedom of speech, freedom of movement and all of our rights have finally been successfully stripped away.

Subj: Atlanta Bomb from Operation Piedmont?
(Jon Roland)

This is to remind everyone that a warning of a bomb at the Olympics was first issued May 11, 1996.

<Jeff Randall> CopWatch@aol.com --

"Through our investigation, we believe that paid government agents (Danny and Kevin Barker) were attempting to make bombs to stage a terrorist strike at the Olympic Games in Atlanta, Georgia, this summer and blame the Georgia Militia. This clandestine activity is called "Operation Piedmont". Piedmont Road is a major thoroughfare in Atlanta which passes Piedmont Park and Georgia State University (Athletics).

"We have turned this information over to the proper authorities. The names are withheld at this time so as not to compromise our investigation."

This was followed up by a press release on May 22:

"It has come to our attention that the lives of Kevin and Danny Barker may have been threatened. As you all know, the Barker brothers were the paid ATF confidential informants (CI # 62 and CI # 63) in the Starr/McCranie case.

"We ask, if you hear of anyone threatening these people please call Jeff Randall immediately at (205) 570 0638. I will immediately turn this information over to the proper authorities. We do not need these people harmed in any fashion, their testimony is crucial to the case and also crucial in exposing ATF "Operation Piedmont." Piedmont is an operation run by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to implicate and coerce militiamen into manufacturing or experimenting with explosives."

The complete reports and others related to them can be found at http://www.constitution.org/mil/ga/mil_usga.htm

Circumstances surrounding this event, based on press reports available at this time, are extremely suspicious. Local authorities warned people in the area to leave the area a few minutes before the blast, reportedly as the result of seeing a "suspicious package" or bag under a light tower. Now, the question must be asked, what would make a package or bag suspicious? In the kind of open public gathering that we saw in the television reports, it is likely that many packages or bags were around that were no more or less suspicious than the one containing the bomb. Why would authorities focus on this one, unless they had a warning that described the package or bag, or unless they planted it themselves? If the warning originated with BATF agents, the connection with Operation Piedmont deserves our attention, and BATF agents must be considered prime suspects in this incident, especially if they now try to point the finger of suspicion at militia activists.

I am home to send out this message to the world...I ask that you put it on all your Listsservers....You E this to everyone in the World...I want the world to hear my words...

Comes before the sacred fire of my Grandfathers and knees down as she offers tobacco to our Sacred Ones and asks them to hear the words of a Tsalagi woman Grandfathers....

Last night I saw Evil...I saw what this World has come to...I cry now as I speak these words to you...I have saw a holy city captured...held Hostage...I have seen our Spirituality now in the hands of men who spit upon us...and who have guns pointed at us....

I went to our Holy City of New Echota, Grandfathers...in obedience to your words...I went....and as I walked up There were 15 Park Rangers standing in a group, with semi automatic weapons...9 mm ones Fred told me...in the Parking lot...refusing to allow us there....Armed...like at a standoff...and it reminded me of Wounded Knee when they would not allow us there.

I talked at the locked gate with the Supt....I said..We are NOT here for trouble..we only wish to pray...He refused to allow this...He was so angry...so angry...and men with the guns stood there with arms folded..and I thought..they're going to shoot us if we go on.

I asked him...Is there not a place here designated to pray in...He said.. "Yes, the First Amendment Area." (You'll be happy to know our First Amendment has an designated area.) I said.."Can we pray there?" He said.."Do you have a Permit?" A PERMIT?! "Yes, you have to get one in our Atlanta Office of the National Resource Agency." I looked at him silently...and he said.."You have to get them during normal working hours and they're closed now for the holiday weekend."

I asked him..."Does everyone have to have a permit to pray there?" He said.."Well, we take it on a case-by-case basis." I asked.."What is the criteria then for this?" He said.."Its up to us."...

"So, YOU decide who can and cannot pray then in the First Amendment Area?" "Yes" I smiled up at him and said.."I'll bet you wouldn't allow me then to be one who could." He didn't answer...just looked at me...I felt at that moment more pity for a man corrupted by his system than I ever have...I knew that if I walked onto that area...we'd be shot...I knew it as surely as anything I've ever known... They were so angry...so angry...

I stood there as they began taking pictures of us...writing down tag numbers..and I smiled at them as they took pictures...and hoped the sadness is reflected in that smile when they develop it...I looked past them standing there... blocking our way into that holy land...and it ocured to me.. We worry about fighting for the religious freedoms in Bosnia and other places...and right here, literally in our own back yard..we have none....we have none...and my heart wept.

The Sheriff's office came...told us you can't stand in the roadway...and of course I knew the harassment was beginning and the charges would read obstructing traffic" or something like that which they usually do...I've lived this before...I asked Danawa to leave...she kept staying...I got her and put her in the car...

We held council with the Ketoni...We had to go over to a campground already prepared..and as they counceled, I sat quietly listening..and when it came my turn to speak I stood up...and I told them...We cannot light this sacred fire...we cannot.....The Ketoni agreed...and so we did not.

Grandfathers...I want the World to know this thing...I want them to know that our People cannot pray without Permits anymore...I want them to know our sacred fires cannot be lit...That the Spirits on our Holy City cannot be reached there...I also want you to know I'm on my way back out there...Danawa is out there now....but I had to come back...to tell the world...THERE IS NO RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THIS COUNTRY...THERE IS NONE...and I want the words to be heard....

backs away 7 steps in the betrayal of our Nations, from the cold ground where sacred fire could not be done...and realizes...the breast of Mother is cold today...and Creator's voice was silenced...and WEEPS for the sadness of it all

I want the world to know that as of 11:30 AM Saturday.. they are still there armed..and refusing to allow it...and I have taken pictures of it..and I want the world to see... how we have to have Permits to Pray or be shot....

Subj: FBI-Gadsden Minute Men

To All:

On Sunday night, I and several other Minute Men met with Steve Brannon and Mike Callahan, both Special Agents of the FBI.

Early Saturday morning, I had personally called the FBI to offer our assistance in any possible way in the investigation of the bombing at the Olympics. On Saturday night at approximately ten o'clock, two FBI guys went to the home of the mother of one of our associates, asking all sorts of questions about her son's whereabouts and associates.

Early Sunday, I again made contact with the FBI to offer my personal assistance, and our associate who was being sought made contact with the FBI to discover what their beef was. The FBI guy, an Agent Webb, played a bad cop, threatening arrest and other nastiness. Our associate, after consulting with me, offered to meet the FBI in any public place, and suggested a Shoney's restaurant.

Agent Webb was scandalized, and wanted our associate to go to the court house. He was rebuffed. Soon Agent Brannon became involved, and finally exhibited some professionalism. He was amenable to meeting in a public place, so long as it was not a high traffic location. Our associate, with my concurrence, agreed to meet with the FBI in a public park in Birmingham.

The meeting began in the public park in Birmingham, but the FBI was worried about the open surroundings and likelihood of militia or media personnel lurking about, and THEY suggested that we move the meeting to SHONEY'S RESTAURANT- which we did.

Agents Brannon and Callahan, with backup FBI in a car in the parking lot, met us at Shoney's and the meeting continued. They were quick to assure us that there were no plans for an arrest and that we could leave at any time. The reason for seeking our associate was that he fit a physical description of suspects wanted in the bombing at the Olympics. Before the meeting was over, I think that they wished that we had left a long time before.

They wanted to know the whereabouts of our associate on Friday night around midnight, and were informed that he was in a public place surrounded by scads of witnesses. They wanted his address, and were told again that I was the spokesman for the Gadsden Minute Men, and if FBI had business with any of us and did not have a warrant, I was the man to contact- as I had offered, over and over and over. The agents were reminded that they would not be pleased to have a militia guy show up at their mother's home at ten p.m. looking for them and asking questions; they should keep that in mind when they went looking for militia guys, without a warrant.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to, what else, but the Constitution and militia philosophy. The meeting ended with everyone on good terms, and with two FBI guys having, perhaps, a better understanding of the militia and our goals and motivation.

Recently, an internal Treasury Report was made public. This report entitled, Violent Anti-Government Groups, Confrontations and Tactics, has many militia "leaders" and patriot groups listed.

An internal source had previously tipped me that I was a subject of investigation, however, I was hesitant to make this public due to various reasons.....but now that  has decided to send it to the world, I suggest everyone get a copy to see if you are listed. As far as the documentation being completely verified, I do not know, however, I do know that the reports on me coincide with what I was previously tipped off to.

The  report reads on myself and Mike Kemp as follows:

6 & L INDUSTRIES, Gadsden, Al. 13120 95 0010S
Possible manufacture of pipebombs, Jeff Randall. OPEN
It is anticipated that Mike Kemp will be charged with possession of a silencer.

As you can see, ATF considers this an open case. For the record, I do not manufacture, possess or play around with pipebombs. Letters will be going out to my Congressmen concerning this report. I also intend to file a FOIA with Treasury, requesting my file.

As for the ATF scam, merely trying to retaliate for our exposure of their little gun running, racist, East Tennessee party, you haven't seen anything yet, we are just getting to the fun part, concerning corruption in East Tennessee. You had better place a muzzle on the local cop in Ft Lauderdale, because he's telling everything he knows, including pictures of Mexicans, and how Rightmeyer fits into the plan. Remember, he was one of the GOB's MOB. While you're muzzling, you best muzzle some of your own agents, so they will quit telling about the machine guns that mysteriously came up missing in the Los Angeles ATF post, could this be a result of your new SAC and his new SAS team? Or what about Jimmy, who has decided to play with the spooks?

ATF, I'm closing in on your "look the other way" gun-running business, so if you want to close the case on Jeff Randall, you had better begin to manufacture some pipe bombs to place on my premises. The invitation remains open for your agents or anyone else's to search my home and property at anytime. I have nothing to hide, while you most certainly do. So tell Jose*Pedia to crank up the Treasury PR machine...looks like you're going to need it. Your own good agents are fed up with the sorry, egotistical, adrenaline junkies you have running around. These agents are placing their careers and lives on the line, attempting to bring some honor back to the ATF and other federal law enforcement agencies. Thank God for them.

Subj: STARR-OLYMPICS UPDATE
 HEAR YE, HEAR YE, HEAR YE!
 Subject: GA Statement

On April 26, 1996, Robert Starr and James McCranie were arrested and charged by federal agents with conspiracy and possession of and unregistered explosive device (pipe bombs). According to the government's own testimony (and the press), the pipe bombs of the accused are similar in construction to the one used at the Olympic Park in Atlanta on July 27th.

The U.S. government's witness (BATF Agent Steve Gills) also testified under oath that Starr had no knowledge of such evidence being placed on his property, and that McCranie stated that he wanted nothing to do with making pipe bombs. The government has also stated in their response to the defense attorney's motions that the confidential informants had "participated" in the burying of evidence on Starr's property.

We were concerned that the illegal activities of these informants were not over. During the first week after the arrests, we provided the FBI, at their request, information about them, including photographs.

Starr, McCranie, and now Troy Spain, are now being held without bond until their trial which begins on Sep 3. Against the written protests of the defense, Starr and McCranie were relocated to the U.S. Penitentiary in Atlanta, GA shortly before the Olympics, at the request of the U.S. Marshall Service for "security reasons". No further details were given.

Upon learning of the tragedy at the Olympic Park at about 2 a.m. July 27th, we immediately began going over evidence from our investigation concerning the Robert Starr case. Based on news reports concerning a pipe bomb made of galvanized steel with nails attached and a white male with a soft southern accent, we became concerned that the tragedy might be linked to individuals who we learned of through our investigation on the Macon case who fit this profile.

The U.S. District Court gag order issued at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, approximately 7 hours before the bombing, prohibits us from disclosing more about these suspects.

At about 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 27, we telephoned the FBI in Atlanta, the Atlanta police, and the federal security agency called SOLEC, and told them that we were aware of suspects who know about and have made pipe bombs. We also offered to listen to the 911 tape and compare it with voice recordings of the individuals, and show our pictures of these men to any eyewitnesses. The FBI official told us they were "too busy" to speak with us and would not give us any more information.

On Saturday, we began to observe footage of our Bob's arrest, and heard that a "militia connection" was suspected.

Robert Starr gave a taped statement from the federal penitentiary. Mr. Starr stated that the perpetrators should be hung. His analysis of news clips suggested that the perpetrator had to be familiar with security measures, and that it might have been done by informants who are known to have instigated illegal activity in Georgia in the past. If he listened to the 911 tape, he might recognize the voice, he said, and he offered to assist the government in any way possible to find the culprit.

On Sunday morning at 10:00 EST we held a press conference at the federal building in Macon, played Mr. Starr's statement for the news media, and told them (within the limits of the gag order) of our suspicions and that our calls had not been returned.

Several reporters questioned ACOG officials during their 5:00 p.m. press conference as to why the lead provided by the Georgia militia had not been followed. They claimed that all leads were being investigated, but looked rather uncomfortable throughout the conference, which was peppered with questions from reporters concerning the Fourth Amendment and constitutional rights.

As of 8:00 a.m. on Monday morning, law enforcement agencies have still failed to return our phone calls.

However, we have spoken with and have given the same information to news media from all over the world since 6 p.m. Saturday:

Several additional radio shows, including KRLD 1080 AM of Dallas, are scheduled.

However, the feds are hitting back. We are told from patriots outside of the Macon area that the network feed started hitting Bobby and Jimmy hard after 11:00 p.m. Sunday.

If anyone might have been in Centennial Park on Friday night, or has any other information that might help in solving this terrible crime, please contact us using the information below.

When conducting an investigation, one usually asks the question, "Who benefits?". The pipe bombing in Atlanta has the potential of damaging the Starr McCranie and Spain defense although they have the perfect alibi (held for trial without bond in a U.S. Pen.).

Also, the results of the bombing has led to military personell on every major street corner of Atlanta while government officials call for more money, manpower, international co-operation, and yes, authority over our lives. The freedom movement (Militia, Patriots, etc.) have spoken out against this policy for years. Nor would any Georgia militiaman wish to jeopardize the upcoming Macon trial.

We believe that since only one of three manufactured pipe bombs exploded, the idiot who committed this crime wanted even more death and destruction than what was received. It is for this reason, we fear that before the Atlanta Olympics are over, these criminals may strike again... somewhere in Georgia.

Subj: IS ATLAS SHRUGGING?

To All:

Knock off some rough edges, give it a paint job, and we have today Ayn Rand's dark vision of our future.

In Liberty,

Mike Kemp

KEMP'S FREEHOLD: IS ATLAS SHRUGGING? 7/10/96

Ayn Rand wrote a remarkably prophetic book in the 1950's. The Men of the Mind, the thinkers and producers and workers of the world, are likened to Atlas, the mythical figure said to support the world on his shoulders. Her premise is that government will become more destructive as the looters and moochers become more firmly fixed in their power base.

One by one, the Men of the Mind went on strike, removing themselves to a remote western site to re-establish a rational society with the aid of a little technological wizardry (read: science fiction) and: the money of the wealthiest banker on earth; a philosopher turned international pirate; the scion of a mega-wealthy industrial family turned industrial destroyer; and...

John Galt, the inventor, the Wizard of the book, was the organizer of the strike, and indeed caused the motor of the world to stop. Society fell into anarchy, and he and his buddies were there to pick up the pieces.

It is a plausible story, chillingly prophetic in its many accuracies. However, the fatal flaw is that it is too rational. Business is burdened these days, particularly the smaller companies which can least afford it. But the real story is that Atlas' burden has been placed on the many mere mortals among us. Government learned the lesson of history; Nazism will defeat Communism. They know to not try to bleed business dry; give the big boys a piece of the action. Then they both get to bleed the casual American. Society is still destroyed, but they think that they can keep this up forever.

Don't pick on a man who has money and lawyers and a demonstrated ability to work within the system. Insure that he must be part of a corporation. Pick on a soft target. Bleed, just a little at first, but gradually more and more until the blood donor can barely sustain himself, and the huge parasite he now carries around. When is tax freedom day? more than five months into the year? I weigh 180 lbs. Five twelfths of my body weight is 75 lbs. I do not like nor easily tolerate carrying a 75 lb leech on my back.

Once upon a time a man could provide for his family. Now it requires two incomes, and the children are left at the mercy of the state (public schools?). Over the last thirty years in order to keep a job, one was required to move. This uproots children, disrupts friendships and family infrastructure; divorce is rampant, compounding the problem.

Gramma and Grampaw are on the dole plus whatever savings they had accumulated. Most of those savings were looted from them in the great inflations of the seventies. And most of them don't even know how.

Their heirs (us!) are the ones paying the bills. Who has time and resources to do anything but submit? Who has the knowledge and the fortitude to do something besides submit? There is the question. Are we, Americans, sheep? Are we to be sheared, butchered at Uncle Sammy's pleasure?

Government-subsidized capitalism is no better than communism; you and I pay. Only when there is a strict return to the Constitution will there be prosperity. Only we can do it. By, for, and of the people? Not if we whine There's nothing we can do. In one respect, Rand was perfectly correct: only the individual can make a difference, there is only INDIVIDUAL effort and achievement.

And a late update; Bobby Dole, the last great Republican hope; yesterday announced that the argument had moved beyond Brady and the assault weapon ban; he would not support their repeal. He wants an instant nationwide check (so you can prove your innocence and update their database at the same time), when you (attempt to) purchase a gun. Remember what happens when you have to ask permission. VOTE REPUBLICRAT. What is it that Gordon Liddy, a good Republican, says- YE SUCKERS.

William Michael Kemp

"I consider the foundation of the Constitution as laid on this ground: That 'all powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to thee States or to the people'. To take a single step beyond the boundaries thus specially drawn around the powers of Congress, is to take possession of a boundless field of power, no longer susceptible of any definition. The incorporation of a bank, and the powers assumed by this bill, have not, in my opinion, been delegated to the United States, by the Constitution."

—Thomas Jefferson Opinion on the Constitutionality of a national bank February 15, 1791

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. you cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of many by encouraging class hatred. You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

—Abraham Lincoln

Not wanting to bore anyone I have already sent this to—but in light of martial law becoming visible here.....and the repeat of history....Let's compare Nazi Germany to America....

"In Germany they came first for the Communists and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the trade unionists and I didn't speak up because I didn't belong to a union. When they came for the Catholics I didn't speak up because I was Protestant. Then they came for me, the Jehovah's Witness', and the unconventional bible believers, browns, blacks, the sick, maimed, deformed and all who were 'different', and by that time no one was left to speak up." Remembering Hitler's New World Order.

IN AMERICA

They came for the unborn babies. I didn't stand up for them because the media said they weren't human beings, thus didn't have the rights of humans.

They came for the pro-lifers. I didn't stand up for them because the media said pro-lifers didn't want women to have any rights.

They came for the Branch Davidians. I didn't stand up for them because the media said they were a cult that hurt children.

They came for the gun owners. I didn't stand up for them because I didn't own a gun. Our government said it would reduce crime.

They came for the militias. I didn't stand up for them because our government said they were terrorists.

They came for the right-wing conservatives. I didn't stand up for them because the media said they were radicals.

They came for the conservative publishers. I didn't stand up for them because the publishers spread hatred.

They came for the fundamental Christians. I didn't stand up for them because the media said these people were unloving and intolerant.

They came for the parents. I didn't stand up for them because the United Nations said it was in the best interest of the children.

They came for the old, crippled, lame and minorities. I didn't stand up for them because it was none of my business.

Then they came for me. There was no one left to stand up for me. As I sit in this processing center, wondering what will become of me, I remember all the talk of certain groups not deserving their constitutional rights. It didn't affect me, because I had my constitutional rights. I remember hearing talk from these enemies of the state. Talk about concentration camps, UN troops stationed here to be a peace keeping force. I remember them talking about the New World Order. And that people would loose their freedoms. I didn't take the time to check out what they were saying. I believed the liberal media. I believed our government
